

BASE BALL WAR COOLS OFF

Week Passes with No Utterance from Either Faction.

MAGNATES ABANDON THEIR ORATORY

New League Formed by St. Paul Men Comprises Couple of Western League Towns, but There's Nothing Doing.

Such a holy calm. Peace as thick as molasses and nearly as sweet has fallen over the base ball world. All the magnates who were so recently ramping and clamping and looking for something to tear up have stammered down until their falsettos are no more violent than an infant's breathing.

When a week goes by, as did the last, without a pronouncement from either President Whitford or President Hickey it is certain there's nothin' doin'. Just what has come over the spirit of these valiant warriors, who only a little while back were hurling huge hecatombs of words at each other, and who are now so docile, is not understood.

Another of the startling bits of news of the week is that Jimmy Manning has lapsed Jackie Weimer. This is hailed as a decided victory over Tebeau. Manning is now said to have three players under contract. More than this he will hardly need.

O. H. T. Briggs of St. Paul is the latest promoter with a circuit that can't be beaten. His league comprises three cities in Iowa and five in Illinois. Des Moines and Sioux City are two of the points he has picked.

The Western league and the American association each promise to give the other a surprise before the year is much older. Further than this we are told nothing. A meeting of the Western is set for Denver next week. At this the schedule committee is to make its report. It is hardly likely that much will be done on the playing schedule until after the circuit has been made up.

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS DULL

Track and Base Ball Teams Still Matters of Talk Only Among Students.

Athletics at the Omaha High school are suffering from a pronounced and protracted stagnation in almost every department. Absolutely nothing is doing in outdoor sports, nor in track work, either indoors or outdoors, and the base ball team is, as yet, more talk and plans. A captain has not been chosen, and none will be till the men get out for the first practice, along the end of March or the first of April.

Meanwhile the basket ball team is getting into action. Captain Kelley and his men meet regularly six days each week as the Young Men's Christian association gymnasium, and there they are working hard to get into trim for the first important game, which is to be played with the champions of the Lincoln High school on March 1. This contest is scheduled to occur at Lincoln, but there will be a return match later in this city.

In basket ball, as in all other departments of sport, the most intense rivalry exists between the two schools. So wrapped up in this dual strife do the representatives of these schools become that they forget the presence of any others in scholastic athletics in the state, and are generally brought back to a realization of the existence of such with a thud about the time of the inter-scholastic field meet at Lincoln in the spring, when lads from York, Beatrice and different other towns step in and win some of the events from the favorites.

A fact which is most peculiar when it is remembered that intense interest is taken in foot ball at the High school is that a high grade track team is seldom gleaned from that institution. For many springs past Omaha has failed to come out on top in the yearly inter-scholastic meet, championship honors usually going to the Lincoln High school.

This is hard to understand. In most high schools the foot ball and base ball players go in hand for track athletics as well, generally composing most of the track teams. This is the case at Lincoln, at Fremont, at Beatrice and at York. Thus the track showing is likely to be rather good in any event, as it is seasoned athletes who compete, and the determination and stubbornness of foot ball players means much in the heartrending races and strenuous jumping and vaulting events.

CREIGHTON BASE BALL TEAM

New Case at College Gym Gives Candidates Lots of Chance to Work.

At Creighton university the base ball team aspirants are already hard at work, thus getting actively in the game before any other college men in Nebraska. In this new case at the college gymnasium, there is ample room for every department of the game's work, save outfielding, and the boys are so pleased at having such accommodations for the first time that it is hard to keep them away from the training quarters.

Y. M. C. A. ATHLETES ARE BUSY

Teams and Candidates Getting Ready for Break Indoor Competitive Trials.

There is a constant patter and sliding of rubber-shod feet and creak and rattle of athletic apparatus at the Young Men's Christian association quarters these days. The gymnasium is certainly being worked overtime. No way to avoid this is apparent, for with four dual meets on its hands during the next three months the team of track and field athletes is hot in the zest of preparatory training.

The basket ball team, however, will get in much more immediate action than the track team, and the competition for place on the chosen five is strenuous now. Some 400 men and boys are playing on the different teams and all are vitally interested in the selection of the first team. For the first game, which will be played against the Sioux City Young Men's Christian association there next Tuesday night, the team will comprise Jardine, Develin, Willard, Hanson and Bliston. Changes may be made at any time, however, as the new material shows up promisingly.

BOWLERS OFF ON THEIR WORK

Week Shows No Startling Change and Some Rather Mediocre Scores.

The week's play in the Omaha Bowling league has been again uneventful. No changes appear in the playing percentage column, save that the Gate City, St. Charles and German teams have now bunched at a tie for third place, which the Gate City men held last week. This was accomplished by the Germans taking three from the Krug Parks and the Gate City taking three to the Krug Parks.

The members of the league showed their pride in the work done by the Gate City Bowling club of the Germans at the American Bowling congress and their personal regard for that bowler as well by the handsome dinner held in his honor on Friday night. Great enthusiasm for bowling was displayed and it is plain that the game is growing stronger and more popular.

It is anticipated that the two-man tournament which is shortly to begin will be the vehicle of the closest rivalry and competition. Almost every man of the sixty members of the league will enter this event.

BOXERS ARE EAGER FOR MORE

Additional Bouts with Big Mitts Talked Of for Omaha During Spring.

The starter's pistol shot has sounded and boxing is on in Omaha. Since the contest between Hatch Smith and Jack Whitaker at the Trocadero a week ago the sporting atmosphere has been rife with plans for a dozen similar affairs. Just how many of these projects will materialize cannot be foretold, but that there will be at least one more entertainment of the kind in a few weeks is certain.

Clarence made himself a great favorite with the crowd at the Trocadero by his fast work in the four rounds he went with Joe Gleason. English is a lightweight.

Meanwhile Eddie Gardner, who is still in South Omaha and anxious to meet most of the weight, he would like to take on Joe Leonard or Adam Ryan, principals in the last affair at South Omaha, and he is itching to get Hatch Smith in the ring. It is considered that this match, if it is possible to frame it up, would make a very good one.
